Notes on Code of Conduct re-numbering:

- The renumbering has been introduced to make the Code of Conduct numbering consistent with the Federation of Law Societies Model Code of Professional Conduct.
- The Definitions section is now Chapter 1 so all the chapter numbers have changed accordingly (e.g. Chapter 2 is now Chapter 3). Subsequently, all the Rule numbers have changed to match the Chapter numbers.
- The format of the numbering has changed. Rule 2.03 becomes 3.3 with the change in chapter number and the dropping of the leading zero. Rule 2.03 (1) becomes 3.3-1 with the change in chapter number, dropping the leading zero and changing how the numbering is presented.
- This general change applies to all Rules (e.g. 5.01 (1) becomes 6.1-1) except in the following cases:
  - Rule 2.02 (1.1) becomes Rule 3.2-2.
  - Subsequently, Rules 2.02 (2) to 2.02 (5) become Rules 3.2-3 to 3.2-6 respectively.
  - Rule 2.02 (13) was moved in split into two rules to become Rules 3.2-7 and 3.2-8.
  - Subsequently, Rules 2.02 (6) to 2.02 (12) become Rules 3.2-9 to 3.2-15 respectively.
  - Rule 6.02 (8.1) becomes Rule 7.2-9.
  - Subsequently, Rules 6.02 (9) to 6.02 (13) become Rules 7.2-10 to 7.2-14 respectively.
