NOTICE

Disbarment

On March 18, 2016, a Hearing Committee of the Benchers of the Law Society of Alberta ordered David Skrypichayko disbarred, effective immediately. Mr. Skrypichayko lives and practiced in St. Albert, Alberta until his membership was suspended by the Benchers pursuant to section 63 of the Legal Profession Act, R.S.A. 2000, c. L-8, on June 18, 2013.

The Hearing Committee found that Mr. Skrypichayko's conduct was deserving of sanction on 19 citations involving failing to serve clients, failing to respond to client communications, improperly commissioning an affidavit, failing to provide written information as to his fees and disbursements to a client, issuing accounts in excess of a fair and reasonable amount, failing to render accounts in a timely manner and concurrent with the transfer of trust funds, failing to conduct himself with civility and courtesy, failing to cooperate with or be candid with the Law Society, holding himself out as an active member, failing to advise of his status as a suspended member, and practicing law while suspended.
