NOTICE

Section 32 Resignation in the Face of Discipline

On March 27, 2018, a Resignation Committee of the Law Society of Alberta accepted an application by Kelly Sinn to resign pursuant to section 32 of the Legal Profession Act, effective immediately.

Mr. Sinn has been an inactive member of the Law Society since December 2016. He resides in Edmonton and practiced law in Edmonton and Calgary.

At the time of his resignation, Mr. Sinn admitted to conduct deserving of sanction, including: failing to serve his clients, failing to respond to communications from his clients and failing to respond promptly and completely to the Law Society.

A custodian of Mr. Sinn's practice was appointed in December 2016 and continues to be:
