

NOTICE

Suspension

On July 7, 2023, a Hearing Committee of the Law Society of Alberta found the conduct of Misha Sanghi, a member of the Law Society who lives and practices in Calgary, Alberta, to be deserving of sanction on two citations relating to the following conduct: failing to provide competent, timely, conscientious and diligent service to a client; and failing to act with integrity, including by altering one or more documents to mislead a client.

Conduct deserving of sanction is defined in the Legal Profession Act, R.S.A. 2000, c. L-8 (the “Act”) as conduct that is incompatible with the best interests of the public (including members of the Law Society) or conduct that tends to harm the standing of the legal profession generally.

Pursuant to section 72(1)(b) of the Act, the Hearing Committee ordered that Ms. Sanghi be suspended for three months, commencing within two months of July 7, 2023. The Hearing Committee also ordered that Ms. Sanghi pay hearing costs in the amount of $9,000.00 and referred her conduct to the Minister of Justice pursuant to section 78(6) of the Act.

Ms. Sanghi’s suspension will commence on September 1, 2023. The following lawyer has been appointed as custodian of Ms. Sanghi’s practice for the duration of this suspension:

Tessa Cran
Two Rivers Law
2810 30th Street SW
Calgary, AB T3E 2M5
Tel: (403) 475-4320

The full written decision of the Hearing Committee will be posted to the Law Society of Alberta website when it is issued.
